The Lesson. Revelation xix. 11—16.

Hymn. A. & M. 108.

Address.

Hymn. A. & M. 437.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, we commend to Thy loving kindness the souls of Thy servants, who have given their lives to defend us. Accept, O Lord, the offering of their self-sacrifice, and grant to them with all Thy faithful servants a place of refreshment and peace, where the light of Thy countenance shines for ever, and where all tears are wiped away; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Comfort, O Lord, we pray Thee, all who are mourning the loss of those who are near and dear to them. Be with them in their sorrow. Support them in Thy love. Teach them to rest and lean on Thee. Give them faith to look beyond the troubles of this present time, and to know that neither life nor death can separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. To whom with the Father and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory now and for ever. Amen.

O Lord Christ, Thou Prince of Peace, the Faithful and True, who in righteousness does judge and make war: Grant to us all, we beseech Thee, that putting on the whole armour of God, and taking up our cross, we may follow Thee as Thou goest forth conquering and to conquer; and fighting manfully under Thy banner against sin, the world, and the devil, we may be found more than conquerors, and at the last may be refreshed with the multitude of peace in the heavenly Jerusalem, the holy city of our God: whose is the greatness, and the power, the victory and the majesty, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing.
