

Invertham Rectory

Red Hill

18 March 89

Dear Sir

I have to thank you for your very ready response to my enquiries respecting Mr Rands of whom I have been in search for years.

You may perhaps care to know that he was educated at Northampton, graduated M.A. from Exeter College, Oxford, 11 April 1662, and was Rector of Swarden and ^{Vicar of} Bethersden, Kent, 1667-9 - on the presentation of Archbishop of Cant^y.

Thanks to Dean Burgon's book
I seem to have been living at Turvey the last day or two. Of course I had read 'Lest Richmond' before.

Believe me

Yours truly

A. J. Pearman

If it is not too much trouble, I should like the inscription on his stone.
