

White Rose Cottage.

Holywell. St. Ives. Hunts.

June 9th 1900.

Dear Sir.

You will, I trust, pardon me for the liberty I am taking in writing to you, but I understand that certain members of the Mordaunt family are buried in your church at Turvey. Will you be so kind as to let me know whether a great-great (etc.) aunt of mine, a daughter of Sir Alistair Fraser of Durris (Kincardineshire) by name Carey Fraser, who married the fighting Earl of Peterboro, a Mordaunt, is buried at Turvey, and if her husband is also in the church. The lady was a celebrated "Toast" two hundred years ago, and her portrait is in the beauty gallery at Hampton Court.

I am, yr. obt. Servt.
A. Anderson-Fraser.

1709.

May 28. The Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Cary, Countess of Peterborough was buried, and no affidavit brought -

William Bamford, Curate
Thomas Deoctu }
Henry Peeres } Church