Dear Sir,

Will you kindly excuse my troubling you with a question, which presents itself to me in the course of some literary work, with regard to Turvey Rectory?

I should like to know,

- (1) until what date William Friend held the rectory of Turvey (presented to him in 1714 by the Earl of Peterborough), and
- (2) who was his successor, and should be greatly obliged, if you would enlighten me as to these 2 queries.

Trusting to hear from you,
I am, Dear Sir,

yours truly

Theodore Lorenz, PH. D.
