

Turvey Abbey

February 23rd 1859

My dear Sir

It is proposed,
to give to the Sunday-school children, with
their teachers,
and the church
quire, a tea-
drinking; and it is thought that you would kindly

contribute to the fund, to be collected
for that purpose.

Should you be inclined to do so,
you will confer an obligation on the
mouths and throats
of a large number
of poor children,
who will be gratified
and benefitted by your liberality.

I will take care to send you information
of the time when the school festival will take place.

Ever faithfully yours
Charles Longuet Higgins
